About This Game

Be careful when downloading the game: you run the risk of escaping the real world for a long time to get completely absorbed in saving the Earth from the imminent threat!

We are happy to present our innovative game in the genre of Tower Defense inspired by the legendary Alien Shooter series! Here you will not just build towers to protect your territory, but will also get in charge of a platoon of elite warriors. Each one of them has their own field of specialization, unique features, as well as development possibilities. It is also possible to equip each class of warriors with weapons of your choice.

The attack is under way. The armed forces are mobilized. Violent battles are happening across the whole globe. You are the commander of an elite warrior platoon and find yourself in the midst of large-scale war events, and your actions will determine whether blood-hungry monsters will destroy our planet, or if humanity will come out victorious!

The game was created in keeping with the best traditions of Sigma games, no concessions of any kind - everything is just like in real life!

- Totally real-life presentation of events – there is a limited munitions stock for each weapon, and it has to be replenished during combat.
- Powerful supply crates that include ammunition, weapons, coins, and ammo.
- Your enemies' dead bodies don't disappear - wait to see what happens when you finish each level!

- Seven character classes with unique characteristics and development possibilities.
- Hundreds of types of weapons – equip your troops according to your personal gaming style.
- Any kind of weapon can be modified by expanding its basic features. You can disassemble it and get money, as well as auxiliary supplies.
- Send your troops to get training, so they can develop a variety of combat skills.
- By combining different kinds of forces, you can develop your own tactics needed to accomplish each mission.
- In a critical situation, you can use bombs land mines, as well as supply Drones that will momentarily replenish munitions stocks for all the combatants.

Each weapon has its own rating and price for bullets used on the battlefield.

Each class got 3 slots for the weapon chosen.

Level increase allows you to use more powerful weapon, increases skills and adds special abilities.

The price of call for soldier is comprised of the price for the soldier and the price for charger equipped in the first slot.

Weapon Slot	Weapon Rating	Weapon Price
1	30	35
2	56	60
3	15	12

And, of course, in keeping with our traditions, there are unprecedented crowds of monsters, plenty of bloodshed and explosions, as well as many other things you would usually see when you play our games on your devices!

I felt compelled to "100%" the game as much as possible (except for that last achievement), but I was really unsatisfied when playing the game. Towards the end of the game I would basically have it on in the background whilst doing something else.

Whilst it's not an awful TD game, there are much more satisfying ones out there that you should play first, hence the thumbs-down.

Pros:

- You shoot lots of aliens, like in Alien Shooter 1 and 2.
- I quite like the constant-upkeep-reloading mechanic.

Cons:

- Lacking a lot of "basic" stuff you'd expect from a TD game: You can't see what enemy are coming where, you just have to wait for them to turn up. If something is a surprise, i.e. sudden spurt of fast units you have to restart and then prepare accordingly. A big waste of time.
- The difficulty is really front loaded. Once you start to win on a map you just continue to win without much effort. The same happens on the campaign map as well, really.
- The waves are often poorly balanced and you're just waiting aaaaaages for them to come. Sometimes I wish I could just summon all remaining waves at once -- I'd probably mush them all anyway.
- The (free, in-game) loot-box aspect is a bit annoying. There's still a few guns I'm "missing" and other than churn there's no way to get them. It can also mess with the front-loaded difficulty a bit as getting a better & cheaper gun means you're suddenly more effective.
- Because of that there's a lot of grind.
- A lot of the weapons are poorly balanced. i.e. laser and freeze guns are always good, but sniper is only useful near the end of the game with good guns.

- The final boss mission is a joke
  - The game has 7 towers but only allows you to take 4 into a mission. Each tower has N many guns but only allows you take 3 in. The limit is pointless and it just means you ignore 3 towers for most of the game, only to find out that you unlock them all at the end anyway, so when re-doing the missions on harder difficulty you can use everyone. It's not particularly easier to have everyone available, but it is more fun. Also the weapon limit is tedious, as sometimes you'd like to go in cheap and then upgrade, whereas other times you want to go in fully upgraded and save a few bucks on initial placement, but you have to configure this per map. I'd prefer it per-placement. It wouldn't effect the game, but it would be less tedious.
  - There's not enough distinction between all the units. They LOOK different and FEEL different, but once you start playing you realise you don't need to be that diverse, and most maps play out the same no matter what aliens come for you.
  - There's no much text, but what there is is a dodgy translation
  - Interface is really poor. e.g. I wish you could see if the "auto buy ammo" option is on for an individual soldier without having to select them, because going through all of the units to select them is really clunky and haphazard, especially as one soldier's button overlay overlaps the next dude you want to select!
  - The "towers" are represented as soldiers, with feet, but you can't move them :)
  - The unit AI is sometimes awful and prioritises the wrong target, or chooses a target it doesn't have LOS to and so wastes precious ammo.
